RE: Speaking Invitation
Palm Beach Round Table
Palm Beach, Florida
24 March 1988

Chairman of the Palm Beach Round Table, Frank Wright, is requesting confirmation of your appearance before the Palm Beach Round Table meeting on March 24th. As Director of the FBI, you spoke to the Round Table in 1980. However, I do not believe that the early part of 1988 is a good time to revisit this group. If you agree, please sign the attached letter of regret.

Dear Frank:

Many thanks for your note concerning March 24th as a good date for me to speak at the Palm Beach Round Table meeting. Unfortunately, my schedule is heavily committed for that period of time and I am unable to accept the invitation. Since I enjoyed meeting with the Round Table in 1980, I am disappointed not to be able to do so again. Thank you for thinking of me. A return invitation is indeed an honor.

Warmest regards.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Bill

Dear Judge Webster:

For easy reference, copy of your latest
letter to me is attached.

Thank you very much for what you wrote,
with some encouraging words.

Since March 24 is quite a distance ahead,
might that be a date you could manage?

If so, an immediate confirmation by phone,
collect (305 655-5266) would absolutely clinch
March 24 for you and ease my anxiety.

With greatest admiration and respect,

Sincerely,

Frank Wright

Dear Frank:

Many thanks for your thoughtful note.

I'll keep your thoughtful invitation well in mind. I thought it was a good session years ago and should be repeated.

Warmest regards,

Sincerely,

William H. Webster
